Community Foundation for Southern Arizona Responds to Outpouring of Support

TUCSON, Ariz. (January 11, 2011) – The Community Foundation for Southern Arizona (CFSA) has put information on its website about the Christina Taylor Green Memorial Fund and other charitable funds created as a result of the recent tragedy. You can learn more by accessing the CFSA website at www.cfsoaz.org.

The Community Foundation for Southern Arizona performs due diligence to ensure that all grants/donations are used for charitable purposes.

If you are aware of other funds or activities that we can list on our website please contact Evan Mendelson, Vice President of Donor Relations and Program Services.

The Community Foundation for Southern Arizona is committed to working with charitably minded individuals and organizations to strengthen Southern Arizona communities, now and for generations to come. A public organization and a leading voice for innovative solutions in Southern Arizona with more than $93 million in assets, the foundation has allocated more than $100 million to the community since its founding in 1980. For more information, call (520) 770-0800 or visit www.cfsoaz.org.
